

CAPPA BYLAWS

~~Adopted September 28, 2010~~ Revised April 20, 2011

CAPPA BYLAWS

ARTICLE I. NAME & OFFICE

The Central States Regional Association of Physical Plant Administrators of Universities and Colleges (CSRA) was founded at Kansas State University, Manhattan, Kansas, in December 1953. The name was changed to Central Association of Physical Plant Administrators of Universities and Colleges (CAPPA) at the Annual Meeting of the General Membership at the University of Houston, Houston, Texas, on October 5, 1987 and was incorporated as CAPPA, INC., in the State of North Dakota on November 4, 1993. Hereinafter the organization will be referred to as CAPPA.

CAPPA may have an office at such place within the Central Association as may be designated by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSES

The purposes of CAPPA shall be to develop and maintain high standards in the administration, maintenance, operation, planning, and development of facilities management in educational institutions ~~of higher education~~; to promote professional ideals and standards to better serve the objectives of education; and to engage in such other related activities as may be desirable or required to fulfill the objectives of the organization. A further purpose is to supplement and assist the work of APPA: in the Central region as defined below and to provide for official representation of the Central region on the Board of Directors of APPA.

CAPPA is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Sections 501 (c)(3), and 170 of the internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, other private individuals, or organizations organized and operated for profit (except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes as herein above stated). No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall involve the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the organization shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, the organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by:

- A. An organization exempt from federal tax under Section 501 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 as described in Section 501 (c)(3) of such Code (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), and
- B. An organization described in Section 509 (a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or in the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), and

- C. An organization of which contributions are deductible under Sections 170, 2055, 2106, or 2522 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

Membership in CAPPa is based upon affiliation with an eligible institution, with each member institution accorded equal status. Dues as well as individual rights and privileges are based on classifications of participating individuals. To be eligible for membership, institutions shall meet requirements as defined in the following:

A. Eligibility for Membership

1. Institutions, or systems of institutions, which meet the eligibility criteria of (higher education), are eligible for membership in CAPPa from the following geographical area:
 - a. Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas and the Canadian provinces of Manitoba and Nunavut.
 - b. States, provinces, or countries adjoining any of the above.
2. Each U.S. institution shall qualify under Section 115 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or be exempt from federal taxation under Section 501 (a) of such code as an organization described in Sections 501 (c)(3) and 509 (a)(1), (2), or (3) of such code, or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law. Institutions of Canada or other adjoining countries shall meet corresponding non-profit criteria. Additionally, member institutions must have a designated Institutional Representative who meets the criteria established herein.
3. Eligibility for institutional membership in the CAPPa shall be accorded representatives from institutions of higher education which require at least two years of academic credit for graduation and which have been legally granted the authority to award degrees, where such institutions meet the following criteria:
 - a. The institution must be constituted with a governing board;
 - b. The institution must be accredited or be in the process of being accredited by one or more nationally recognized accreditation agencies;
 - c. Academic credits granted by the institution must be acceptable toward the earning of a baccalaureate or higher degree by that institution, or by transfer to institutions which require four years of academic credit for graduation and which have been legally granted the authority to award certain degrees.
 - d. The institution must operate an independent ~~physical plant~~ Facilities Organization.

- e. The institution must maintain the position of a principal administrator directly paid by the institution and in charge of the physical facilities or buildings and grounds of such institution.
4. Eligibility for university or college system membership must include two or more institutions, which meet eligibility requirements as defined above. A qualified institutional member of CAPPa will not be denied the right to membership because the institution is a part of a system of universities and colleges that also has a voting member in CAPPa.

B. Application for Institutional Membership

1. To acquire and maintain membership, institutions shall have an Institutional Representative who meets the criteria established in the Bylaws, Article III.C.
2. Application for institutional membership shall be made by the prospective Institutional Representative to APPA. The application will be reviewed to ascertain that both the institution and the prospective Institutional Representative meet the qualifications. If the institution meets the qualifications but the prospective Institutional Representative does not, the application will be referred to the CAPPa Executive Committee for decision. The Membership Chair will notify the applicant of action taken on the application.

C. Classification of Membership

There are two classifications of membership; voting and non-voting. Voting members are: Institutional Representative, Associate, and Affiliate. Non-voting members are: Business Partners, Emeritus, Retired, and Honorary. For each of these classifications, the obligations, rights, and privileges shall be as specified herein.

1. Institutional Representative Membership

The Institutional Representative shall be the official representative of the member institution. The Institutional Representative shall be the principal administrator directly paid by the institution and responsible for the physical-plant facilities management of the institution or, in the case of a system, shall be the principal administrator directly paid by the system and responsible for the facilities management functions of the system. With the approval of the Executive Committee, a subordinate of the principal facilities management administrator may be the Institutional Representative of a member institution. Should the Institutional Representative change due to personnel changes in the member institution, the prospective Institutional Representative shall notify the Membership Chair of the proposed change and the new employment status, and request to be designated the new Institutional Representative. Approval processing and authority shall be as with a new request, except that only the qualifications of the prospective new Institutional Representative will be evaluated. The application will be reviewed by the Membership Chair and the Treasurer to insure compliance with eligibility requirements. Institutional representatives are eligible to vote and are required to pay annual dues.

2. Associate Membership

Associates of CAPPa shall be facilities management professionals, administrative or supervisory, other than Institutional Representatives, and employed at member institutions, including systems. The application will be reviewed by the Membership Chair and the Treasurer to insure compliance with eligibility requirements. There are no limitations on the number of Associates from each member institution. Associates can hold elective and appointive offices, in which case they shall exercise the rights and functions of the office. Associates are eligible to vote and are required to pay annual dues.

3. Affiliate Membership

Affiliates of CAPPa shall be professional personnel employed at educational institutions, engaged in work related to ~~physical plant~~ facilities management and having an interest in the professional activities of CAPPa. The application will be reviewed by the Membership Chair and the Treasurer to insure compliance with eligibility requirements. There are no limitations on the number of Affiliates from each educational institution. Affiliates are eligible to hold elective and appointive offices, are eligible to vote, and are required to pay annual dues.

4. Business Partners

Business Partner membership in CAPPa is open to all corporations who provide products and services to the facilities management marketplace or who have an interest in reaching facilities managers in the education environment. Each branch office shall be considered an individual business. The application will be reviewed by the Membership Chair and the Treasurer to insure compliance with eligibility requirements. Business Partners cannot hold elective or appointive office, cannot vote, and are required to pay membership dues. The CAPPa Executive Committee may provide additional classifications of Business Partner based upon either an amount of sponsorship, or years of consecutive service/support/ sponsorship to the Association.

5. Emeritus Membership

Emeritus Membership status is considered to be a high honor that should be afforded to those retirees who have made significant contributions to CAPPa. Such status is granted to CAPPa members and Business Partners who have retired and whose written application for Emeritus Membership have been approved by the Executive Committee. Emeritus members may participate in Annual Meetings at complementary rate, are entitled to receive all CAPPa mailings, may complete a current term of elective office, serve in appointive offices, are not eligible to vote, and do not pay annual dues.

Business Partners who have been approved for Emeritus Membership may participate in Annual Meetings at the spouse/guest rate, are entitled to receive all CAPPa mailings, cannot hold elective or appointive office, are not eligible to vote, and do not pay annual dues.

6. Retired Member

Retired Member status may be granted to an individual who has retired as a CAPPa member in good standing. Retired members may participate in Annual Meetings at the complementary rate, are entitled to receive all CAPPa mailings, may complete a current term of elective office, may not serve in appointive offices, are not eligible to vote, and do not pay annual dues.

7. Honorary Membership

Honorary Membership shall be bestowed on any person deemed worthy of this honor whether or not they are now or ever have been engaged in physical plant work or a member of CAPPa, APPa, or any regional or state association. Honorary membership shall require annual approval by the Executive Committee. Honorary members cannot hold elective or appointive office, cannot vote, and do not pay annual dues.

D. Annual Dues

1. The amount of annual dues to be paid by Institutional Representatives, Associates, Affiliates, and Business Partners shall be as approved by a majority of the members present and voting at the annual business meeting. Changes will normally be recommended to the membership by the Executive Committee. All changes will be announced to the membership prior to invoicing. Dues shall be payable upon receipt of invoice and shall be considered delinquent ninety days thereafter.
2. The dues paid for the Institutional Representative establishes and maintains institutional membership, the period for which the dues are paid is not affected by a change in Institutional Representatives in accordance with Article III, herein.
3. Should an Associate or Affiliate relocate from one member institution to another, the period for which their dues have been paid shall continue in the former institution. Additionally, a replacement Associate or Affiliate from the former institution that meets eligibility criteria, may be approved for the remainder of the period for which the dues have been paid.
4. Each year CAPPa's Annual Meeting and Technology Conference provide Business Partners with excellent opportunities to demonstrate support for higher education facilities and the people who staff them. As noted in Section III,C,4 the Executive Committee may provide additional classifications of Business Partners.
5. Business Partners who terminate their relationship with CAPPa may be replaced by another individual within the same office for the balance of the fiscal year.

E. Resignation from Membership

Any member of CAPPa may withdraw from such membership at any time by giving written notice to the Membership Chair. Such resignation shall take effect upon receipt of such notice. There shall be no refund of dues.

F. Revocation or Termination of Membership

Any member of CAPPa may have such membership revoked or terminated by action of the Executive Committee whenever in its judgment the best interest of CAPPa will thereby be served. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a member of CAPPa shall be dropped from the membership rolls of CAPPa for:

1. Failure to pay dues after having been sent three notices; or
2. Loss of eligibility under the criteria enumerated in Article III, herein.
